Brief Completion Report of the Extension programme on

Promoting Interest on Science and Its advancement by Karimpur Pannadevi College
(29.12.2018, at 12.00 pm at college auditorium)

An Outreach programme for promoting general interest on Science among the students perusing their higher secondary or secondary education on neighbouring schools(Jamsherpur B.N. High school, Karimpur Girls' High school, Jagannath High school etc) was arranged by the college on the great occasion of celebrating the Golden Jubilee of our college on 29th December of 2018. The great writer of famous Bengali daily on Science fiction Sri Pathik Guha was the key resource person to deliver this subject before the students. Almost 250 students from neighbouring schools along with their teachers have participated in this extension programme. The objective of the programme is to build a bridge between the college and neighbouring schools and to aware them on present advancement and prospect on science. Participants enjoyed the interaction with Sri Guha. As a scholar and brilliant orator Sri Prathik Guha satisfied all of the us. The authority of the neighbouring schools appealed to organize such programme regularly for their students in college campus.
