Brief Completion Report of the National Level One Day Online Workshop Webinar on “ The Open Way of virtual Learning and Issues of Plagiarism”- was held on 29th August , 2020, organised by the Department of Library in collaboration with IQAC of Karimpur Pannadevi College and in association with Jalangi Mahavidyalaya, Murshidabad, West Bengal.

Let me have the pleasure to state that the Department of Library of our college in collaboration with IQAC and association with our MOU partner Jalangi Mahavidyalaya has successfully conduct the one day National level workshop on “The Open Way of virtual Learning and Issues of Plagiarism” - was held on 30th August , 2020,. We have tried to shape this workshop as a Professional development programme. The topics and theme of the workshop have been organised such a manner by which the scholars, academicians, researchers and other fellow may get a way out on how to use the open learning issues and making a clear idea on plagiarism which is really be a significant unfolded area before our academician.. To get familiar our students with this various aspects of these contemporary issues the library resource management the workshop is undoubtly got a grand success. Two erudite scholars on this field theme Dr. Ramesh C. Gaur, Professor, Dean and Head of the Kalanidhi Division,(IGNCA), Ministry of Culture, Government of India and Dr. Parthasarathy Mukhopadhyay, Professor and Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, Kalyani University, West Bengal delivered their resourceful presentation on the theme of this online workshop from different dimensions. Almost 806 (Eight hundred and six) participants across the country have participated in this online workshop. The present workshop elaborately highlighted on how to detect and avoid the plagiarism. The various sources and methods to avoid the plagiarism have been explored by Dr. Ramesh. C. Gaur and different online sources for open learning and their using guiding manuals have been described quite interestingly by Professor Dr. Parthasarathy Mukhopadhyay.. All the participants submitted their feedback have received the E- certificate of participation.
